POTATO PIE IN THE FIRST-EVER
JAMES WILSON PIE AWARDS!

THE JAMES
WILSON
PIE
AWARDS

The late James Wilson pioneered Barnoldswick's Pie Championships and the revived competition commemorates his work on behalf of the town.

This year's competition is all about spuds, and all pies should have potatoes as one of their main ingredients. Pies can be either meat or vegetarian and will be judged in amateur, professional and junior (under 16s) categories. Entrants can submit up to three pies for judging.

Email barnoldswicktowntowncouncil@gmail.com to register your entry.

Entries must be submitted by 11am on Saturday 12th February.
